The Board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen, whose well known character for integrity, honor, and public enterprise are so well known as to guarantee success, and a fair and impartial distribution of the gifts:—

Major George W Grice, President Bank of Portsmouth,
Col William Lamb, President First National Bank, Norfolk,
Gen V D Groner, General Agent Boston Steamship Company,
Captain Nathaniel Burruss, Son & Co., Washington Reed, Esq., of Peters & Reed Merchants,

Should the tickets be not all sold when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm basis a delightful resort during the heated months.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

LOCAL BRIEFS.—

We don't want any more "beautiful snow."

A small house, with three or four good rooms, is wanted. Apply to "J. W.," at Edwards & Broughton's.

Great reduction in winter clothing for the next sixty days at Ramsey & Co's, 29 Foyetteville Street. 1t

Yesterday numerous sleighs were on the street. The sound of the merry tinkling bells fell pleasantly upon the ear.

Tarboro' like Raleigh, continues to improve. Three steamboats now run between the former place and Washington.

The holiday is over for newspaper men, and remorse and headaches are the only things that now speak of the "joys once tasted."

The ice in the ponds near this city on yesterday was nearly three inches thick. Skating was in vogue though the ice was rough.

Rev. S. R. Trawick will sell on Tuesday next, at his residence, his farm horses, two fine cows and other things. See notice elsewhere.

A small colored boy accidentally shot himself through the palm of the left hand with a small pistol. Dr. James McKee dressed the wound.

The report that W. H. Bailey, Esq., of Salisbury, is to take up his residence in this city is authoritatively denied. Mr. B. will remain in Salisbury.

The worthy host of the Yarborough House gave a pleasant egg-nog on Christmas morning. The beverage was delicious and the company most agreeable.

Major J. M. Blair, former proprietor of the Yarborough House, was in the city yesterday. The Major is to take charge of the Mansion House in Charlotte.

The employees and inmates of the Insane Asylum enjoyed an elegant dinner Christmas day. The Steward, J. H. Moore, Esq., is a most efficient and active officer.

The egg-nog of Fraps, Miller & Nelson and Max Potter, was exceedingly popular. That is we judge so from the large number of persons we heard of partaking of their hospitality.

G. T. Stronach & Co., the enterprising Grocers and Commission Merchants of Exchange Place, have some elegant Nash brandy on hand. Alex., like a good fellow as he is, remembered us on Christmas day.

Mr. Henry E. Parham, the good looking caterer for the Yarborough House, has just returned from a visit to his friends in Granville.

He enjoyed himself muchly in rabbit hunting, candy pulling, prayer meetings and egg-nogg drinking. Bully for old Granville.

We were mistaken the other day in saying Mr. Churchill would soon remove his quarters to the Yarborough. Mr. C. will remain at the National, which is to be opened under the proprietorship of Major W. H. Bagley, with Mr. Parton as Superintendent. Success to you gentlemen.

John Johnson and Anthony Farrer, the parties that engaged in a stabbing affair on Wilmington street two or three nights ago, were before the Mayor on yesterday and bound over to the January term of the Superior Court of this county in a bond of $200 each.

Mayor Whitaker, in his capacity of a Justice of the Peace, married a couple on Christmas day and one on the day following. The first were Mr. Thomas Needham and Miss Angelne Pool, and the second were Mr. William Goodwin and Miss Mary Jane Cooper.

Messrs. Miller & Nelson, under the Metropolitan Hall, have just received a large supply of Bologna Sausage, Schwerdenmauger, Blood Worst, Liver Worst, Limberger and Schewitzer Cheese. They also keep on hand wild Ducks, Geese, Turkeys and boiled hams, and North River and Lynhaven Bay Oysters in the shell. All of which Freeman serves up in good style at their Lunch Counter. †

GEO. H. WILLIAMS, ESQ.- On Tuesday evening this gentleman returned from a visit to Warrenton, bringing with him a lovely bride. We are filled with so many good wishes for this young couple that difficulty is experienced to give expression to them. May their wedded bliss never be decreased, and their walk through life be attended with as much happiness as usually falls to the lot of humanity.

The NEWS office has to return its thanks for a large waiter of almost innumerable edibles, all of which were hugely enjoyed, and the happy pair toasted with all the honors.

A BIG THING.—Messrs. Miller & Nelson, did a big thing yesterday by treating their many friends and patrons to some of the most delicious hot apple toddy that was ever made in this locality. The scientific and obliging Capt. Laswell was the compounder, and the beverage did him infinite credit.—The bowl was "set up" all day and the imbibing was done without money and without price.

OXFORD ITEMS.—Our Oxford correspondent, under recent date, gives us the subjoined items of interest:

Pork is selling for $8 per hundred pounds. The demand is limited and the market dull.

The building and Loan Association held its regular meeting on Friday night, it being the third Friday night in the month.

Hon. A. W. Venable and lady arrived in Oxford on Monday evening, with the view of making it their place of permanent abode.

The money was put up at public action as usual. The success of the Association is eminently satisfactory so far. Any new members wishing to join can obtain full and accurate information as to the working of the institution by application to the Secretary, Mr. John W. Hays.

Col. L. C. Edwards, one of our most prominent lawyers, has determined to change his residence from Oxford to Raleigh. Col. E. is a brilliant member of the legal profession, and it will be gratifying to his many clients in Granville to know that he will continue to attend Granville Court.

Rev. T. U. Faucette formally, the Pastor of the Presbyterian Church here, and who for several years past has had pastoral charge of a church in Orange county, has again become a citizen of Granville. He will supply some vacant country churches with ministerial services.

Mr. T. N. Ramsey formed an organization of Good Templars here some time ago. A few accessions have been made to the order since his visit. It is composed almost exclusively of young ladies and gentlemen, numbering five or six of the latter and fourteen or fifteen of the former. Caleb D. Osborn, Esq., is the W. C. T.

A ladies sewing society, which we learn was organized in the interest of the Episcopal Church of this place about two months before Christmas, 1871, commenced its career with ten cents in the exchequer. During Christmas of 1871 it realized for the Church one hundred dollars, after deducting expenses. The members of the Society have been assiduously engaged in preparing a Christmas tree, which we trust yielded much pecuniary fruit on Monday evening last. The price of admission was only twenty-five cents, and the articles offered for sale were marked at prices sufficiently moderate as to give satisfaction to all concerned. There were some highly amusing and interesting features connected with the entertainment, that it would take a long article adequately to describe. We will simply add that the following named ladies constitute the officers of the society, viz: Mrs. W. H. Morrow, President; Miss Eliza Pool, Secretary; Miss Sophie Skinner, Treasurer.

MASQUERADING.—Some of our good people amused themselves on Christmas evening by masquerading. Two young gentlemen, one disguised as a blushing damsel and the other as a portly and rough farmer, succesfully imposed upon a couple of worthy families residing on Hillsboro street. The couple went in the character of relatives from a distance, and claimed the hospitality of those upon whom they called on account of said relationship. Some very amusing occurrences transpired before the masqueraders discovered themselves, but they can't well be spoken of here without going too much into family matters.

On the same evening, while a certain family, living on Fayetteville street, were sitting in their cosy and comfortable room, there came a timid ring at the door bell; a young gentleman, an inmate of the house, proceeded to the door, opened it and beheld a small, trembling and scantily clad form of a young female. Her face seemed pale and wan, and out of her melting blue eyes came glances that appealed at once to the tenderest compassion. In a clear, yet slightly tremulous voice, she told her sad, sad tale of cruel destitution and suffering. Her mother and two little sisters were sitting at that time on the railroad—were completely without shelter and had been without a morsel to eat for over twenty-four hours. The little wanderer was invited into the parlor to warm, and, amid the tears of pity, shed by the kind hearted ladies, was fed and supplied with food for her mother and sisters, and then allowed to take her departure. The feelings of these charitable ladies may be imagined when on the following morning this appended note was received:

"Will Mrs. * * * * * please be kind enough to hand this 30 cents to the young gentleman who so kindly gave it to the por little girl who, by a magical transformation, has turned into a boy this morning. I hope you all spent a merry Christmas."

NOTORIOUS HORSE THIEF CAPTURED.—On Christmas night, a party composed of three gentlemen, captured the notorious horse thief of Rowan county, John Allen Ketchey, near Salisbury. Ketchey was born and raised in three miles of Salisbury. He has already served partial terms in the New York, Virginia and other penitentiaries. He was sentenced a year or more since at Greensboro, N. C., to a term of seven years, in our State prison, but broke jail. Ketchey is a shrewd business rascal. During the war he drew the pay rolls of his regiment, when stationed near Richmond, Va., had passes from all the leading Generals' and went wherever he pleased. He is now confined in the jail at Salisbury.

THE RALEIGH BAPTIST FEMALE SEMINARY.--The spring session of this school will commence on the 17th of February next. See notice elsewhere.

During the present recess the College building is being removed, enlarged and greatly improved, and will, when completed, be most admirably adapted for school purposes. Prof. Hobgood is the right man in the right place, and he will undoubtedly make his school second to none other in the State.

REV. A. F. REDD.—We are gratified to learn that the Trustees of the Raleigh Baptist Female Seminary have secured the services of this distinguished gentleman as Associate Principal. Mr. Redd graduated at the Virginia Military Institute with honor, and afterwards was engaged for five years in teaching, under that eminently successful instructor, Mr. Horner, of Oxford. He afterwards took a course of Natural Sciences at the the University of Virginia, taught successfully at his Alma Mater, the Virginia Military Institute, and has recently spent three years at the Greenville Theological Seminary. By natural ability and severe training he is indeed well fitted to have charge of the department of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, and we doubt not that his efforts will add largely to the prosperity of this already prosperous school.

We cannot refrain from offering our congratulations to the friends of the Seminary for another accession to the staff of instructors. No lady in North Carolina has talents more peculiarly fitted for efficiency in her department, than Mrs, N. L. Jones, of Warrenton.—Teaching is a great profession, second only to that of the ministry, and one in which both sexes can attain the highest meed of success. By natural graces of mind and body, of large accomplishments and singularly attractive disposition, her experience in teaching has already shown her adaptability to the work.

We learn that Cabinets of Minerealogy and Geology have been added to the other attractions of the institution, together with a very fine Philosophical and Chemical apparatus. This latter was very recently purchased and is, perhaps, the finest in the State.

ENTERTAINMENT AT HICKMAN LODGE CHRISTMAS NIGHT.—The entertainment given Christmas evening by the members of Hickman Lodge, Good Templars, at Oak City Hall, was highly successful. Though the weather was unpropitious a large crowd was in attendance, and a very handsome sum was taken in at the door. The music by the ladies was of the most excellent description, while the charades, comic speeches and songs were well received and elicited hearty applause. Prof. Hicks gave some admirable speciems of his ventriloquial powers. We learn that the entertainment will be repeated some time during next month.

STOLEN PROPERTY FOUND.—Yesterday Chief of Police King seized upon Willis McNeill, col., as the person suspected of perpetrating the recent overcoat thefts, and on being conducted to the house of one McKoy, col., near Tupper's church, found a couple of overcoats sewed up in a bed-tick. While Mr. King was searching the premises, Willis gave leg bail, and up to this hour (2 P. M.,) had not been overhauled. The coats were the property of Messrs. W. H. Crow and W. C. Stronach, and were stolen from their houses some days ago.

P. S. Since the above was written, Willis was captured and brought before His Honor, Mayor Whitaker, together with two accomplices, William and Neill McKoy. Willis was required to give a bond of $500 for his appearance at Court, and the other two were bound over in a bond of $300 each. Officer King was very active in ferretting out this matter, and deserves great credit. Quite a number of coats, hats, umbrellas, &c., were picked up at several houses where they were carried after being stolen for concealment. The property is deposited at the Mayor's office, and the owners are requested to come forward, identify and take possession of it. None of the parties could give their bonds, and were all accordingly jugged.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES AT THE DEAF AND DUMB AND BLIND INSTITUTION.—The pupils of this Institution had a happy Christmas. Recently a number of the members of the Legislature contributed a handsome sum to give these unfortunate ones a good time Christmas day. This sum was materially increased by the officers and teachers of the Institution, and the little ones (and big ones, too) had a "fish pond" out of which were drawn many substantial and valuable gifts. We were not present, but hear from those who attended that the scene was a most pleasant one and that all enjoyed it.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to see in our office last night, Capt. Thomas Jarvis, late Speaker of the House of Representatives. The gallant Captain is looking well and—well, he has our hearty sympathy.

Major John Dunham, Senator from Wilson, was in the city this week. He has been spending his time since adjournment in portions of the State west of this city, and we were glad to see him in such excellent spirits upon his return.

RALEIGH MALE ACADEMY.—The spring session of this school will commence on the 13th of January. We are pleased to see that Mr. J. M. White has associated with him, Mr. J. M. Lovejoy, a gentleman who for a large number of years taught in the old Lovejoy Academy in this city. The walls of this building will again echo his voice as of yore.

NEW YEAR'S CALLS.—We are gratified to learn that the ancient and very honorable custom of recognizing the social duties of each incoming year, by 1st of January calls, will be revived by the gentlemen of our beautiful little city at the outset of '73.

The ladies are notified to the end that they may be properly prepared.

MORE INCENDIARISM.—The dwelling house of Mrs. Moses L. Brown, situated two miles West of Salisbury, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last, about 3 o'clock; total loss of money, furniture, provisions, clothing, &c. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. The loss is from $3,000 to $5,000.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Baptist Associations of the State have what they call Union Meetings on each 5th Sunday which are attended by the Ministers and Deacons of the churches. The Union Meeting of the Central Association is now in session in the Baptist church of this city. To day at 10 a. m., there will be a discussion on the "Influence of home piety in the churches." Preaching may be expected to-night by Dr. W. T. Brooks or Dr. Wingate. Dr W. T. Walters or Prof. C. E. Taylor will preach at 11 a. m. to-morrow, and a Sunday School Mass-meeting will be held at 3 p, m. All the schools of the city are invited to attend.

THE SANFORD FEMALE SCHOOL.—A correspondent writing to us from Sanford speaks in the highest terms of the female school at that place, presided over by Mrs. W. T. Tucker. A large room is being added to the present school building, and Mrs. Tucker has secured the services of a most excellent assistant.

Cumulative Suffrage.

WHAT IS IT? By Cumulative Suffrage is meant the right of a voter to cast all the votes he is entitled to for one or more men at his pleasure.

It can be used only where there are to be elected two or more officers of the same designation. Such as two Senators, three Constables, eight Aldermen, &c.

Our present system of voting restricts the voter to one vote for one man. Cumulative Suffrage removes this restriction upon the will of the elector, and allows him to cumulate his votes on his favorite candidate.

To illustrate the two systems: Suppose that the citizens of Raleigh were entitled to elect six Aldermen—now, each voter must vote one time for six different men, but under the cumulative system, he could vote six times for one man—or three times for two men, or, if he preferred, three times for one man and one time for three other candidates. In other words, he would have six ballots to bestow among the candidates just as it might please him, without any restriction whatever. This kind of voting is therefore something very appropriately called the FREE VOTE.

Its effect is to protect minorities—to give to minorities an opportunity to be represented in the common government.

To show how it would work, suppose the number of voters in Raleigh is 2,400, 1,400 of one party and 1,000 of another, and that six aldermen are to be elected. Under the present system of restricted suffrage, the majority would elect all the aldermen, and the minority would be entirely excluded from any voice in their own government; their wishes, views, purposes and desires would never have a hearing at the council Board. They would be governed entirely by the representatives of the other party, with plans and purposes utterly opposed to their own. They would have no part or lot in their own government. But with this unrestricted or cumulative suffrage, there would be another result; the 1,000 electors could cast 6,000 votes, which cumulated on two candidates would give each of them 3,000 votes, and thus elect them. In like manner the 1,400 electors, casting 8,400 votes, could cumulate on four candidates giving each 2,100 votes and elect them.

By this means the majority party would have a majority in the Board of Aldermen, would be responsible for the acts of the city government, &., &c.,—but still the minority would have some share in the administration of the city affairs—they would have representatives in the Board, and would not be practically distranchised as they would be under the existing system.

The cumulative system of voting has been tried in Wilmington and other cities, and is found to work well. It answers all the purposes of reform for which it is intended. We suggest that we give it a trial here in Raleigh

If this proposition meets with favor among our citizens, application can be made to the present General Assembly to amend the city charter so as to allow us this right of cumulative suffrage.—We cordially invite an expression of the feeling of the community through the city press.

SATURDAY.....DECEMBER 28, 1872.

THE RALEIGH SENTINEL.

We learn from an editorial in Tuesday's Sentinel, that hereafter that paper will be published by an association of printers, Mr. Turner still remaining Editor and Proprietor. On account of the expense of carrying on a daily paper, Mr. Turner concluded to change the Sentinel to a Semi-Weekly and Weekly, but subsequently accepted the proposition of the printers in his office, to permit them to continue the Daily, at their risk.

CUMULATIVE SUFFRAGE.

We call attention to a communication in our local columns this morning on the above subject.

The reader will find there the principle of cumulative suffrage so clearly defined and illustrated, that it may be easily comprehended.

The object of the principle is to give to minorities the right to be heard where the popular majorities control.

Cumulative suffrage has been tried in Wilmington and found to work well, and it is suggested that Raleigh might be benefitted by the adoption of the same mode for holding municipal elections.

The wishes of the citizens are requested in order that if the plan meet with favor, a bill may be introduced in the present Legislature granting cumulative suffrage to our city.

RETIREMENT OF THE ASSOCIATE OF THE SENTINEL.

The Raleigh Sentinel of the 25th inst. contains the Valedictory of Mr. T. B Kingsbury, who for the past eight months has been officiating in the capacity of Associate Editor of that paper.

Mr. Kingsbury has formed a business connection with a Baltimore clothing house, and lays down his pen, "perhaps forever," to engage in more lucrative employment. In taking leave of the Sentinel, he makes a strong appeal in behalf of the paper and Mr. Turner, and refers to the kind feelings which he entertains towards his brethren of the State press generally.

In the retirement of Mr. Kingsbury, North Carolina journalism loses one of its most polished writers and gifted scholars. Mr. K. has won a wide and deserved reputation for his classical attainments, correctness of style and fine literary taste.

Mr. Kingsbury has our best wishes for his success in his new spliere of duty.

ACCIDENTS BY FIELD AND FLOOD.

For several days, the telegrams have contained little else than a continuous statement of fatal and distressing accidents from every section of the country.

Our paper, just before Christmas, gave account of several disasters that had occurred on land and sea by reason of the severity of the cold weather.—During our suspension for the holidays, the number of these distressing occurences has been rapidly augmented, and we present this morning, in our telegraphic columns, a full summary of the terrible events that have transpired in the past two days, which present a sad and melancholy picture for contemplation.

Fires, murders, Railroad and other accidents occurring in such numbers, in such rapid succession, and resulting in so much suffering and so great loss of human life cannot fail to awaken warm sympathy in the public heart and create a deep sensation throughout the whole country.

The details of the Railroad disaster at Goose Creek, Pennsylvania, by which twenty-five were killed and nineteen wounded, are heart-rending in the extreme, and the falling of a church in the same State, by which fifteen persons lost their lives is an event almost equally painful and appalling.

THE JOURNAL'S APPEAL TO THE PRESS.

On Wednesday, the 25th inst., the NEWS appealed to the Conservative press of North Carolina to join with us in the effort to put an end to the mischievous discussion concerning the Senatorial question as calculated to keep up strife and wrangling.

The Wilmington Journal made a similar appeal to the press on the same day, and it will be seen from the following extracts from the Journal's article that the line of policy advocated by that paper sustains our position fully. Under the head of "Harmony—A Christmas Offering to the Conservative Press," the Journal uses the following language:

We had hoped that all good Conservatives in the State, after the Senatorial contest was ended, would set themselves actively to work to restore the harmony and kindly feeling so essential to the success of the party upon whose supremacy depends the welfare of North Carolina.

This reasonable hope has not been realized; indeed, we have been compelled to listen to crimination and recrimination that if much longer persisted in, will either ruin the individuals who indulge in it, or the party to which they belong.

It is well known to its readers that the Journal indicated no preference among the Conservative candidates for the United States Senatorship before a regular nomination was made by the Caucus of the party; that as soon as Governor Vance became the nominee, the Journal warmly supported him, and called upon the friends of Judge Merrimon to yield at once to the legitimately expressed wish of a majority of the party. This position was unwaveringly held until the election of Judge Merrimon was an accomplished fact. Then, common sense seemed to dictate that as Judge Merrimon was undeniably a Conservative and not a Radical Senator elect, it would be impolitic for the Conservative Press of the State to seek to impair his usefulness, or to cripple his influence. We put on record, in the plainest terms, our condemnation and censure of the course of those gentlemen who brought about the defeat of the regular nominee.

As we have heretofore said, we do not propose to go into the quarrel between Governor Vance and Judge Merrimon. Whether Vance has wronged Merrimon, or whether Merrimon has wronged Vance we do not know. The Journal does not follow the fortunes of Governor Vance, nor does it follow the fortunes of Judge Merrimon. It does not follow the fortunes of any individual. The Journal follows with an eye single to its success, the fortunes of the Conservative Party. Its principles are our principles; to its organization we acknowledge allegiance, and under its flag we fight.

Our Party can survive the loss of Judge Merrimon; it can survive the loss of Gov. Vance; it can survive the loss of other gentlemen, and for the reason that its foundations are laid upon principles and not upon men. * * *

The great mass of the Conservative Party are not mere personal adherents of party leaders, so-called, self constituted or otherwise. They profess allegiance to Party and not to men, and if we mistake not, will soon become tired of the personal wrangles, and of all those who may take part in protracting them. We have great confidence in the sober second thought of the people. Their well considered, final verdicts are almost invariably right. If we mistake not, their verdict in this and in all like cases, will be that the harmony, unity and integrity of the Conservative Party, are superior to the personal claims or interests or advancement of any of its members.

We call upon the Conservative press of the State earnestly to unite with us in urging all good Conservatives in North Carolina to desist from all wrangling, or at least to desist from fighting their private battles in the public newspapers. If there be festering sores afflicting our Party it surely can do no good to lay them bare for our enemies to irritate and inflame.

The Journal has on more than one occasion shown its partiality for Governor Vance, as it has also done on more than one occasion for Judge Merrimon. What we have said we have said in the interest of the Party and not for or against any individual. The duty of calling these matters to the attention of all concerned, seems to us to devolve with peculiar propriety on the gentlemen of the Press, and on this day above all others, when peace and good will possess the souls of all Christian men.

QUASHING INDICTMENTS.

As a matter of interest to the legal fraternity, we publish at the request of a distinguished member of the bar of this city, the following important principles of law, relating to indictments. They are taken from the recent decision of Judge Ingraham, of the Court of Oyer and Terminer of New York City, upon the motion to quash the indictment against William M. Tweed. It will be seen that the motion to quash was denied.

The following extracts embrace the most important points discussed in Judge Ingraham's decision:

Another matter which has been to some extent hinted at on this motion is, that the counsel who appeared before the Grand Jury or the Attorney General, for whom he was acting, was actuated by motives hostile to the defendants. There was no such charge directly made, as I understand the counsel for the defendant. If it was intended, I feel bound to say there was nothing appearing on the papers before me which warranted it in regard to either of the counsel. The Attorney General, as the law officer of the State, and the associate counsel acting for him, under his direction, and with the assent of the District Attorney, are to be presumed acting in the proper discharge of public duties. Wrong motives are not to be imputed to such officers so acting, and if I had understood the counsel as making such imputations I should have felt it my duty to check it. Whether the act of appearing before the Grand Jury was in accordance with the law or no was a proper inquiry, which I will notice hereafter. Beyond that the Court was not justified in going. I now proceed to the matters on which this motion is made, which do not appear on the record. The first matter referred to was that the secrecy which the law throws around the Grand Jury was violated by the admission of the counsel before them. This secrecy is confined to two branches of their duty, one in regard to their own acts and to the evidence given before them, the other in regard to bills found by them, where the accused party is not under arrest in cases of felony. Of the violation of the latter there is no pretence. The former is contained in that part of their oath which requires them to keep secret the counsel of the people, their own and their fellows. The learned counsel referred to "The Complete Juryman" as describing what this jury is, where it is said to be matters discovered by the magistrate or prosecutor (who are the persons named by the King's counsel,) or matters disclosed by some of the Grand Jury or by witnesses before them. To this should also now be added the proceedings before the Grand Jury in taking a vote or in discussions as to finding a bill. These are all the matters to which secrecy is enjoined either by the law or by the oath of the Grand Juror. It is not pleaded that any such disclosures has been made, but it is urged that the obtaining of such knowledge by a person not authorized to appear before them is a violation of this provision. I think not; witnesses must be before the Grand Jury. Each one knows what took place while he was there, and there is no law to prevent his disclosing such knowledge. The presence of a counsel before them to aid in examining witnesses is a matter entirely subject to their control, and if assented to by the Grand Jury can form no ground for such imputations without further proof in relation thereto. The main question connected with this branch of the motion is whether the appearance of the counsel before the Grand Jury on the finding of the first indictment, and to examine the witnesses in any way vitiates the present bill found by the same Grand Jury at a subsequent day on a re examination of the witnesses under the direction of the District Attorney. At the common law when Grand Juries were first instituted, there was no such office as District Attorney. Sometimes the Attorney General, in matters relating to the crown, would prepare the indictment and present it to the Grand Jury. In other cases prosecutors were admitted before the Grand Jury with their witnesses to make their complaints, and counsel would sometimes be directed by the Court to prepare the indictment and do other matters necessary to the prosecution of the offender. In this State for half a century the criminal business of the State has been conducted by District Attorneys appointed or elected for that purpose, and their powers and duties have been regulated by law, to which I will hereafter refer. In the present case it is not claimed that there was any error in regard to the finding of the indictment now before the Court, nor is it shown that anything that took place in the examination of the witnesses on the first indictment in any way operated to the prejudice of the defendant other than the mere finding of the bill; nor can any such prejudice be presumed, without proof, against a high public officer or counsel associated without him in the discharge of his public duties. The question then is, whether the presence of a counsellor who is not a public officer, authorized to conduct the criminal proceedings on behalf of the State, may be admitted to the Grand Jury room to examine witnesses before them and advise them as to an indictment presented to them for their action,—Whatever may have been the law in England when Grand Juries were first established, or during the period when no prosecuting officer was provided, that state of things has not existed in this country. Since 1815 the office of District Attorney has existed in New York, whose duty was specially to attend to the criminal business of the country. (Laws of 1815.) Under the law as it then existed the question arose between the District Attorney of Albany and the Court of Sessions whether the District Attorney had a right to be present with the Grand Jury and conduct the examination of witnesses. The Supreme Court decided that the District Attorney ought not to attend the Grand Jury for the purpose of examining witnesses, nor for any other purpose except to advise them upon any question which they might put to him in relation to their duty.—(7 Cowan, 565.) This was the opinion of the Supreme Court at that time, adverse to any right of the District Attorney to attend the Grand Jury. In consequence of this opinion, the Legislature adopted special provisions relating to the District Attorney, providing that it should be his duty to attend the Grand Jury which requested, for the examination of witnesses, or giving them advice upon a legal matter. It was also provided that the District Attorney should be allowed at all times to appear before the Grand Jury on his request, for the purpose of giving information relative to any matter cognizable by them, and be permitted to examine witnesses before them when they shall deem it necessary. (Sec. 33.) The latter section also prohibits the District Attorney or any other person, except the Grand Jurors, from being present during the expression of their opinions or the giving of their votes upon any matter before them. This decision and the provisions of the statute settle very clearly the question whether any person other than the District Attorney may be present with the Grand Jury. When the decision was made in 7 Cowan, it was irregular for any person, even the District Attorney, to attend during the sitting of the Grand Jury, either for examining witnesses or for any other purpose, except to advise them on any question they might put to him. This was in 1827. The alterations in the laws, which were passed in 1828, changed the law so far as to provide certain cases in which the District Attorney might appear before the Grand Jury.—In all other respects the law remained unaltered. No other construction can be given to a statute, passed as this was, to remedy partially a decision of the Court than to confine its operation to the express words used for such purposes and try to give express powers to the District Attorney, leaving the prohibition to all other persons remaining in full force. Under the decision of the Supreme Court, the Attorney General has no more authority than the District Attorney to appear before the Grand Jury. No provision of law changed the effect of that decision as to the Attorney General, and it remains as then held to be improper for the Attorney General or any other person, except District Attorney, to appear before the Grand Jury. I do not refer to the decisions in other States on this point, because I feel bound by the rule adopted in 7 Cowan, and the subsequent modification of that decision by statute. For the reasons hereafter stated this motion should not be granted on this account. There are some general rules applicable to the motion to quash an indictment which may be referred to as applicable to this motion.

It is discretionary to grant such a motion or not, but if doubtful as to the question raised the motion to quash should not be granted (1 Wharton, C. L., sec. 519, and cases cited 1 Chitty. C. L. 299). If some of the counts are good and a motion is made to quash the old indictment it will not be granted as to some counts (Bishop on Cou t Practice, 760.

So where the indictment is for a serious offence, affecting the public at large, it will not be quashed except upon the clearest grounds, and the ends of justice will be promoted thereby. Most of the objections made to the indictment are, as before stated, immaterial. The application of these rules to the others will render it proper to deny the motion as to these. I have fully examined all the objections made by the defendant's counsel, yet I find nothing that will justify the Court in quashing this motion. It must, therefore, be denied.

GIRLS WORTH HAVING.—The Albany, Ga., News thus speaks of two Worth county girls of great worth:

A writer informs us that two young girls of Worth, residing near Gin Town, brought to market last week the last of their crop—being the seventh bale. Only think of it, young men, two girls produce seven bales of cotton, while you are lying round town waiting for somebody to offer you a situation.

The Piedmont Springs will be sold next month.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING.—The writer of this notice will cheerfully send (free of charge) to all who request it, the Recipe for making and successfully using a very simple Vegetable Remedy, that will be found a positive and speedy cure for Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, Loss of Vitality and all forms of Nervous Affections, and the evils and disastrous consequences that follow in their train.
This remedy is entirely a product of the vegetable world. Its component parts are simple as nature herself is simple—harmless toward nature, yet powerful in opposing and eradicating disease. Consumptives; despondent and debilitated and nervous sufferers, do not fail to give this remedy a trial. It will cost you but little. It may save you from a Life of Misery, or a Premature Grave. I know whereof I speak. Let him who doubts come forth and see. Letters of inquiry answer by return mail. Those who feel disposed will oblige by stating their symptoms—by so doing beneficial suggestions may often be made. Address

REV. EDWARD BURNETT,
Tropical Nurseries,
Albany, N. Y.

N. B.—Those suffering with incipient Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c., &c., will find speedy and permanent relief in the above mentioned remedy.
It is at least worth a trial, as the cost is nominally nothing. Respectfully, dec18-12t EDWARD BURNETT.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

THE HUMAN ROOF AND ITS THATCHING.—If the man deserves well of his country who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, surely he who produces a glorious crop of hair on a comparatively barren scalp deserves the hearty thanks of the obliged party. All honor, therefore, to Professor R. T. LYON, for, unquestionably, his renowned KAIRAIRON accomplishes this object. Gentlemen whose whiskers are shy o making their appearance in force, or the fibers of whose moustaches disclose those "magnificent distances" for which Washington City was once so famous, will find this HAIR PERSUADER the most wonderful encourager of fibrous development that has ever yet been invented. Both sexes are advised to use it, as, by all odds, it is the best article for improving the growth and beauty of the hair, keeping it free from scurf and dandruff, preventing it from becoming harsh, dry and gray—giving it a rich gloss and endowing it with flexibility—that Toilet Chemistry has ever evolved from the vegetable kingdom.

DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA AND QUEEN'S DELIGHT.—This valuable preparation combines all the Medicinal virtues which long experience has proven to possess the most safe and efficient Alterative and deobstruent properties for the cure of Scrofula, King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Cancerous and Indolent Tumors, Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Bones, Glands, or of the Womb, Spleen and Kidneys; all the various Diseases of the Skin, such as Tetter, Ringworms, Boils, Pimples, Sore Eyes, &c; Nervous Affections, Dropsy, and all diseases originating from a depraved state of the Blood. Also many affections peculiar to Females, as Suppression, Irregularity, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, Ovarian and Uterine Dropsy, &c. It is purely Vegetable.

When using Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills, no restraint of diet or occupation is necessary. You may eat or drink as usual. They are purely Vegetable.

DR. TUTT'S Hair Dye does not Injure the Hair

THE TENACITY OF TRUTH.—When a nation as clear-headed as the Americans once become convinced, from long experience and observation, that an article possesses superior excellence as a medicine, not all the preposterous clamor of all the worthless nostrum venders in the universe can shake their belief in its efficiency. Truth is a very tenacious thing, as these worthies are beginning to discover. PLANTATION BITTERS has too firm a hold upon the popular esteem to be in the slightest degree effected by the cold water diatribes which the advertisers of fermented slops, "without a particle of alcohol," are so fond of launching against alcoholic preparations. The public knows very well that this peerless renovant and tonic does contain spirits, but it also knows that they are of the purest and most wholesome description, viz: fine old St. Croix, the most active and beneficial diffuser of its remedial and invigorating properties throughout the system, which could possibly be adopted.

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it? no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 5 Gold Street, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

BURNETT'S STANDARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS are neatly put up in Unpannelled 2 oz., 3 oz. and 10 oz. bottles, and are for sale by the trade generally in every principal city and town in the United States, Canadas, and British Provinces, as well as in many other foreign countries.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS.—You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Whether your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, Indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—No one who has ever used Dr. Tobias' Horse Venetian Liniment, will ever be without it; it is a certain cure for Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises and Old Sores. Warranted superior to any other; in pint bottles, at One Dollar. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

SYAPNIA, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the market, made by process of Dr. I. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

THE Hillsboro market is now furnished with fine beef.

COL. W. P. HENDERSON, Revenue Assessor of the 6th District, continues very ill.

THE belles and beaux of Enfield are amusing themselves with a series of balls.

THE Rev. Paul Carraway has entered upon his ministerial duties at Louisburg.

MR. ALFRED WHITEHEAD, of Halifax county, had his gin house and contents burned on Friday night last.

COTTON thieves are getting troublesome in Halifax. We hear of a number of gin houses being robbed.

A NUMBER of the colored people of Wilmington on Tuesday enjoyed an excursion to Charleston.

THE house of W. C. Erwin in Morganton, and the store of Mr. Presnell, in the same place, were destroyed by fire last week.

ACTING Mayor Brink, of Wilmington, has issued orders closing the prize lottery establishment on Front street in that city.

THE Foreman of the office of the Newbern Times, Mr. Geo. E. Pittman, was recently presented with a very handsome ring by his employers.

THE tobacco trade in Winston continues to be lively. Last week, though some of a very fine quality was in the market, prices ranged from $4.50 to $36 per hundred.

A YOUNG man by the name of Salter, employed in the store of Mr. A. W. Nelson in Newbern, had his face burned and left hand badly cut by the explosion of a kerosene lamp the other night.

THE up frieght on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad on Monday night collided with the down freight. The conductor, Captain Geo. Lynch, and a breakman sustained some injuries in jumping from the train.

THE Roanoke News of the 25th inst. publishes the following account of the recent murder in Halifax county: "On Friday night last, Newton Nevill, a negro, and Henry Dickens, a white man, had an altercation near Goodwyn's gin, in the Darlington section, which resulted in the death of the former. The particulars as we could get them are substantially these: The negro had rented some land of Dickens, and meeting, on the evening in question, a dispute arose about the rents, when the negro advanced on Dickens in a menacing attitude. Dickens drew a large pocket knife, seeing which, the negro returns to his cart, and seizing a large oak pin, made a second attack on Dickens, striking him on the head and body in no gentle manner. During the scuffle which ensued, Dickens stabbed him in the breast and back three or four times, causing immediate death. An inquest was held over the body the next day when the verdict of the jury was given in accordance with the facts, that is: that the man came to his death by wounds inflicted by a knife in the hands of Henry Dickens, in defence of his life. From what we can learn, the people sympathise with Dickens, and deem his case justifiable. He has not been arrested."

THE following notice of a surgical operation upon a young North Carolinian, performed by a distinguished son of this State, we find in the last Baltimore Saturday Night:

"A brilliant surgical operation was performed in our city recently by Dr. Edward Warren, Professor of Surgery in the College of "Physicians and Surgeons," which from its intricacy and happy results deserves notice.

"A youth named Aquilla Hyman, from North Carolina, some sixteen years of age, was brought to Baltimore by his home-physician in search of surgical aid. A large tumor had formed in the back part of his nose and made its way downward to the throat, nearly filling up that locality. The poor boy was reduced to a mere skeleton and suffered intensely.

"He had not slept more than a few minutes at a time for ten consecutive days and nights, and could with great difficulty swallow only small quantities of liquids. His breathing was so difficult, as to place him in constant danger of suffocation.

"Several attempts had been made to relieve this youth, but without success, and when first seen by Professor Warren, he seemed on the very verge of death. Eminent surgeons deemed an operation really impossible, supposing the size and concealed position of the tumor would render its removal exceedingly difficult and hazardous.—Undaunted however, and full of confidence, the task was undertaken and successfully performed by Professor Warren.

"The difficulties attending it were heightened from the necessity of inventing and having manufactured the required instruments. The boys' windpipe had to be opened by "trachiacotomy," several hours in advance, so that enough air by artificial means might enter his lungs to enable him to live up to and during the operation. Some parts of the tumor were removed through the nose and others through the mouth.

"The operation a truly painful and delicate one, lasted three hours. It was performed in a room at Barnum's Hotel, and witnessed by quite a number of persons who expressed great wonder at beholding the young sufferer, thus rescued, from almost certain death, as he could scarcely have survived forty-eight hours longer. He was subsequently sent to the infirmary in view of receiving more careful attention there, and is now doing well, and will return home in a few days perfectly relieved.

"Professor Warren, it may be recollected, is the gentleman who distinguished himself as an expert at the trial of Mrs. Wharton, originating the "Cerebro Spinal Meningitis" theory. He certainly exhibited marked skill in the operation above mentioned."

THE small pox has made its appearance in some portions of Franklin county.

THE Milton Chronicle has been revived by Mr. C. N. B. Evans, more generally known throughout the State as the "fool smasher." We are pleased to see Mr. Evans at his old stand once again.

WE alluded in our last to the suicide of a citizen of Greensboro. A special to the Richmond Dispatch, under date of Monday, says: "To-day at 12 o'clock a gentleman who had a few minutes before left his shoes to be mended in the shop of Jacob Morton, returned and found that in the meantime Morton had hung himself by slipping his kneestrap around his neck and suspending it from the corner of the mantlepiece. Cause of suicide unknown; supposed to be impecuniosity. Deceased leaves a family consisting of wife and two children. The mantlepiece was only four and a half feet high, therefore he could not hang himself without bending his knees."

A SPECIAL telegram to the Richmond Dispatch from Hillsboro, under date of Wednesday, gives the following account of a murder in that place:

"At about 9 o'clock last night there occurred a quarrel between Green Mayo (colored), his wife, and his son Alexander, aged about 16, at his residence near this place, which resulted in the death of Green Mayo. It seems that Mayo and his son were in town yesterday drinking together, and went home, Mayo being considerably under the influence of whiskey, when a quarrel ensued between them. Finally, Mayo taking up his gun threatened to kill both wife and son, but afterwards concluded to use a chair instead of the gun with which he dealt his wife a very violent blow, cutting a considerable gash in her head. At this his son took up the gun and ran out the door with it, and it is thought he struck the lock of the gun against the door, causing the gun to go off, the ball entering the small of the back and coming out at the lower part of the abdomen, resulting in instant death. The boy has been arrested and confined in jail to await the verdict of the coroner's jury, which for want of evidence have not been able to render a verdict. It is generally thought the shooting was accidental."

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.

Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Live has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.
These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME. this were more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE

has excellent special features.
It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.
Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

FISK'S FATE—STOKES' STORY OF THE STAIRS.—Stokes, now on trial in New York, charged with the murder of James Fisk, Jr., related the following to a reporter:

"As God shall judge me, I did not expect to meet James Fisk that afternoon; I had no idea of coming across him that day; I had not seen him before for some time and I had heard that he was still sick of the small pox. I was at the Grand Central Hotel with some friends looking for other friends, and I was rambling to and fro about the hotel when I met him accidentally—by the merest accident, so help me my God." (This last sentence very solemnly.) "I had been very seldom to the Grand Central Hotel; only three times before in my life, I believe, and only once before in the second story, so that I knew nothing of the interior of the hotel at all. While rambling around I met James Fisk, and he met me; we met face to face, and the moment he saw me he put his hand in his pocket. He had his pistol ready. I saw it just as plain as I see that seal-skin cap of yours on your knees there. More plainly, for the light was much brighter and clearer than it is here. I raised my pistol; he fired and I fired, and I knew no more, so great was my excitement, until they brought me into the presence of Mr. Fisk. Even then I did not know that he was wounded. He seemed calm enough, and was half sitting on a sofa. He never said I shot him, or killed him, or anything of the kind. He merely said to the officer who asked him if he recognized me, "Ye, I know the man, it is Mr. Stoke." Nothing more. He even looked at me somewhat in his old fashion, I think—sadly, yet not angrily, almost tenderly. I felt almost like making friends with him then, but he waved his hand, and they took me away, and I never knew anything about that wound in the abdomen until the next day. I thought all the time that I had only wounded him slightly, that it was all a small matter, and I wanted to get on bail at once. I had not the slightest idea of killing James Fisk, and no man was more sorry to hear of his death; for with all his faults, Jim had good stuff in him, and no man knew it better than I, for I knew both sides of him. But he was armed that afternoon, and I shall prove it this time; and shall prove what was done with the pistol—prove it to the satisfaction of the world this time."
